

The Hincke store and house

The drawing above is of the Hincke store, at the corner of 3rd Street and Schiller, in Hermann. Henry Mangelsdorf worked in this store and probably lived in the Hincke house, pictured below. The house was conveniently located on Schiller between 2nd and 3rd; truly a stone's throw from the store. Notice the numerous small windows on the second level. These buildings are still standing and occupied.

"Centenarians of Brick, Wood and Stone" by Anna Kemper Hesse, ©1969

